Owners Comments

Contagious is by the international show jumper Carolus I out of a daughter of Margie Goldstein-Engle's Grand Prix star Lenz/Land of Kings by Lagos/Aldato. Contagious descends from mothers of the famous stallions Moltke I (Silva) and Fasolt (Konradine).

In his first five years at stud, Contagious has produced more than 50% Premium Foals from Holsteiner, Thoroughbred, and other warmblood broodmares. Contagious is a modern type whose offspring are agile, athletic, and energetic, leading to their success in Hunter Breeding and Green Hunter Under Saddle divisions. One offspring, Phoenix, a TB cross, won the Hunter Breeding Division at Devon.

Contagious scored 9's across the board (free jumping and under saddle) in his jumping tests at the AHHA Stallion Approvals in 1997. He showed remarkable balance and adjustability with impressive technique. He has competed successfully in the Grand Prix Jumpers, placing high with his previous rider/part-owner, Christian Rogge.

Contagious is now at Rancho Corazon, LLC, with his current co-owner, Guy McElvain, who will be competing with him.

Contagious will stand at Rancho La Querencia, LLC for the 2007 breeding season.
